

Privacy Policy

Vision Statement

Delivering quality education to grow courageous and compassionate global citizens with truth and wisdom in Christ.

Motto

Growing in truth and wisdom.

Rationale

This Privacy Policy has been developed to meet the requirements of the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act. Medowie Christian School is committed to upholding these principles in relation to the privacy of staff, students and parents of the School. Privacy is respected at Medowie Christian School as it reflects concern for creating and maintaining safe relationships for those involved in the School community.

Policy

The School respects the confidentiality of staff, students and parents' personal information and the privacy of individuals. The School will employ measures to secure this information.

Principles

- The School is bound by the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act
- Staff are required to maintain confidentiality with reference to student, staff and family records and information
- Access to student, staff and family records will be given to staff on the authorisation of the Principal and where required by law and statutory authority.
- The School requires full disclosure by families of all information that may impact on the education of their child. The School will release private information to Commonwealth Departments as necessary, in order to secure Commonwealth funding.
- The release of information to Commonwealth bodies will be notified to the parents.
- The School will only request information from families and staff members that is required by law or Statutory Authority or that in the opinion of the School will directly affect the learning of students
- The School may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to Schools' operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing School environment.

Procedural Guidelines For Staff

- Staff should be briefed on the Privacy Policy each year and when new procedures are implemented
- Any private and/or confidential documentation that comes to a teacher must immediately be sent to the Head of School as a securing measure.
- Heads of School are to file academic-related documentation in the student's file (office)
- Heads of School are to give non-academic related private and confidential documentation to the Principal for confidential storage. This may include minutes of meetings where sensitive or confidential information is disclosed
- Confidential documents are to be kept in secure areas of the School and be under lock and key outside of School hours.

Privacy Policy Notes For Parents

See next page.

Privacy Policy Notes For Parents

(Source: NSW Association of Independent Schools)

1. Your Privacy Is Important

The policy outlines Medowie Christian School's policy on how the School uses and manages personal information provided to or collected by it.

The School is bound by the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act.

The School may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to Schools' operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing School environment.

2. What Kind Of Personal Information Does The School Collect And How Does The School Collect It?

The type of information the School collects and holds includes (but is not limited to) personal information, including sensitive information, about:

- ◆ pupils and parents and/or guardians ('Parents') before, during and after the course of a pupil's enrolment at the School;
- ◆ job applicants, staff members, volunteers and contractors; and
- ◆ other people who come into contact with the School.

Personal Information you provide: The School will generally collect personal information held about an individual by way of forms filled out by Parents or pupils, face-to-face meetings and interviews, and telephone calls. On occasions people other than Parents and pupils provide personal information.

Personal Information provided by other people: In some circumstances the School may be provided with personal information about an individual from a third party, for example a report provided by a medical professional or a reference from another School.

Exception in relation to employee records: Under the Privacy Act the Australian Privacy Principles do not apply to an employee record. As a result, this Privacy Policy does not apply to the School's treatment of an employee record, where the treatment is directly related to a current or former employment relationship between the School and employee.

3. How Will The School Use The Personal Information You Provide?

The School will use personal information it collects from you for the primary purpose of collection, and for such other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose of collection and reasonably expected, or to which you have consented.

- Pupils and Parents: In relation to personal information of pupils and Parents, the School's primary purpose of collection is to enable the School to provide schooling for the pupil. This includes satisfying both the needs of parents and the needs of the pupil throughout the whole period the pupil is enrolled at the School.

The purposes for which the School uses personal information of pupils and Parents include:

- to keep Parents informed about matters related to their child's schooling, through correspondence, newsletters and magazines;
- day-to-day administration;
- looking after pupils' educational, social and medical wellbeing;
- seeking donations and marketing for the School;
- to satisfy the School's legal obligations and allow the School to discharge its duty of care.

In some cases where the School requests personal information about a pupil or parent, if the information requested is not provided, the School may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the pupil or permit the pupil to participate in a certain activity.

- Job applicants, staff members and contractors: In relation to personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors, the School's primary purpose of collection is to assess and (if successful) to engage the applicant, staff member or contractor, as the case may be.

The purposes for which the School uses personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors include:

- in administering the individual's employment or contract, as the case may be;

- for insurance purposes
 - seeking funds and marketing for the School;
 - to satisfy the School's legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.
- Volunteers: The School also obtains personal information about volunteers who assist the School in its functions or conduct associated activities to enable the School and the volunteers to work together and satisfy child protection legislative requirements.
 - Marketing and fundraising: The School treats marketing and seeking donations for the future growth and development of the School as an important part of ensuring that the School continues to be a quality learning environment in which both pupils and staff thrive. Personal information held by the School may be disclosed to an organisation that assists in the School's fundraising, for example, the School's foundation or alumni organisation. Parents, staff, contractors and other members of the wider School community may from time to time receive fundraising information. School publications, like newsletters and magazines, which include personal information, may be used for marketing purposes.

4. Who Might The School Disclose Personal Information To?

The School may disclose personal information, including sensitive information, held about an individual to:

- another School;
- government departments;
- medical practitioners;
- people providing services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers and sports coaches;
- recipients of School publications, like newsletters and magazines (photos);
- parents; and
- anyone you authorise the School to disclose information to; and
- anyone to whom we are required to disclose the information to by law.

5. Sending Information Overseas

The School may disclose personal information about an individual to overseas recipients, for instance, when storing personal information with 'cloud service providers which are situated outside Australia or to facilitate a school exchange.

However, the School will not send personal information about an individual outside Australia without:

- obtaining the consent of the individual (in some cases this consent will be implied); or
- otherwise complying with the Australian Privacy Principles or other applicable privacy legislation.

6. How Does The School Treat Sensitive Information?

In referring to 'sensitive information', the School means: information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union or other professional or trade association membership, sexual preferences or criminal record, that is also personal information; and health information about an individual.

Sensitive information will be used and disclosed only for the purpose for which it was provided or a directly related secondary purpose, unless you agree otherwise, or the use or disclosure of the sensitive information is allowed by law.

7. Management And Security Of Personal Information

The School's staff are required to respect the confidentiality of pupils' and Parents' personal information and the privacy of individuals.

The School has in place steps to protect the personal information the School holds from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and passworded access rights to computerised records.

8. Access and Correction of Personal Information

Under the Commonwealth Privacy Act, an individual has the right to obtain access to any personal information that the School holds about them and to advise the School of any perceived inaccuracy. There are some exceptions to this right set out in the Act. Pupils will generally have access to their personal information through their Parents, but older pupils may seek access and correction themselves.

There are some exceptions to these rights set out in the applicable legislation.

The School endeavours to ensure that the personal information it holds is accurate, complete and up-to-date. A person may seek to update their personal information held by the School by contacting the School's Registrar or Principal's Personal Assistant at any time. The Australian Privacy Principles require the School not to store personal information longer than necessary.

To make a request to access any information the School holds about you or your child, please contact the Principal in writing. The School may require you to verify your identity and specify what information you require. The School may charge a fee to cover the cost of verifying your application and locating, retrieving, reviewing and copying any material requested. If the information sought is extensive, the School will advise the likely cost in advance. If we cannot provide you with that information, we will provide you with a written notice explaining the reasons for refusal.

9. Consent And Rights Of Access To The Personal Information Of Pupils

The School respects every Parent's right to make decisions concerning their child's education.

Generally, the School will refer any requests for consent and notices in relation to the personal information of a pupil to the pupil's parents. The School will treat consent given by parents as consent given on behalf of the pupil, and notice to parents will act as notice given to the pupil.

As mentioned above, Parents may seek access to personal information held by the School about them or their child by contacting the School Principal. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where release of the information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or where the release may result in a breach of the School's duty of care to the pupil.

The School may, at its discretion, on the request of a pupil grant that pupil access to information held by the School about them, or allow a pupil to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their parents. This would normally be done only when the maturity of the pupil and/or the pupil's personal circumstances so warranted.

10. Enquiries

Please contact the Business Manager if you would like further information about the way the School manages the personal information it holds, or if you believe that the School has breached the Australian Privacy Principles. The School will investigate any complaint and will notify you of the making of a decision in relation to your complaint as soon as is practicable after it has been made.